EXPERIENCE

Light English Class For All

April 2023 - February 2024

Computer Science Instructor

As a CS instructor, my primary responsibility is to help students learn and develop a knowledge of computer science ideas. I design and deliver engaging lessons that cater to the diverse learning needs of students while aligning with curriculum standards.

Key Responsibilities

- Teaching the full IGCSE O Level Computer Science curriculum across a diverse class of students ranging in ages and abilities.

Key Achievements

- Attained exceptional A grades in GCSE Computer Science.
- Successfully taught computer science to young adults, receiving positive feedback for effective instructional techniques.
- Developed and executed various programming projects, demonstrating strong project management skills and technical proficiency.

PROJECTS

Dlentrion

January 2024 - February 2024

Python, Django, React, Electron, Typescript

Dlentrion is a tutorial project aimed primarily at developers who want to create hybrid desktop applications using Django and Electron. Additionally, Dlentrion provides step-by-step guidance, allowing developers to seamlessly integrate the powerful backend capabilities of Django with the versatile frontend possibilities of Electron.

MathMasters
